Hoofland's German Bitters,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever;
PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM,
induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.
Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates st.

THROUGH THE WORLD.

Some hearts go hungering through the world,
And never find the love they seek;
Some lips with pride or scorn are curled,
To hide the pain they may not speak.
The eye may flash, the mouth may smile,
The voice in gladdest music thrill,
And yet beneath them all the while
The hungry heart be pining still.

These know their doom, and walk their way
With level steps and steadfast eyes,
Nor strive with Fate, nor weep nor pray;
While others, not so sadly wise,
Are mocked by phantoms evermore,
And lured by seemings of delight,
Fair to the eye, but at the core
Holding but bitter dust and blight.

I see them gaze from wistful eyes,
I mark their sign on fading cheeks;
I hear them breathe in smothered sighs,
And note the grief that never speaks;
For them no might redresses wrong,
No eye with pity is impearled,
O, misconstrued and suffering long,
O, hearts that hunger through the world!

For you does life's dull desert hold
No fountain shade, no date grove fair,
No gush of waters clear and cold,
But sany reaches, wide and bare.
The foot may fall, the soul may faint,
And weigh to earth the weary frame,
Yet still ye make no weak complaint,
And speak no word of grief or blame.

O, eager eyes which gaze afar!
O, arms which clasp the empty air!
Not all unmarked your sorrows are,
Not all unpitied your despair.
Smile, patient lips so proudly dumb—
When life's frail tent at last is furled,
Your glorious recompense shall come,
O, hearts that hunger through the world!

SELF-MADE MEN.—We do not wonder that great men have been born mechanics; for to those who have been brought up exclusively in drawing-rooms, intelligence is a game, a recreation; for those who have held the sword or the helm, who have driven the plough or worked with the chisel, intelligence becomes a passion, a force, a beauty, a worship, and a love divine. It is from the stall, the shop, the work room, that the most powerful minds have issued: Moliere from the upholster's, Burns from the farmer's, Shakespeare from the hosier's shop, Rousseau from the wheelwright's. Long engaged in a struggle with physical nature, they all took refuge in the free domain of thought. Even an inferior mind would become tempered to strength in these mechanical apprenticeships; and if ever the spirit of reform, which is seized on the world, should extend to the act of creating citizens, we doubt not that good sense will gain a victory over custom, and that one of the most important parts of every education will be henceforth the due admixture of the development of the mind and its action on nature.

A SHARP RETORT.—On one occasion as the Reverend Matthew Wilks, a celebrated London preacher, was on his way to a meeting of ministers, he got caught in a shower in a place called Billings-gate, where there were a large number of women dealing in fish, who were using most profane and vulgar language. As he stopped under a shed in the midst of them he felt called upon to give at least his testimony against their wickedness.

"Don't you think," said he, speaking with the greatest deliberation and solemnity, "I shall appear as a swift witness against you in the day of judgment?"

"I presume so," said one, "for the biggest rogue always turns States evidence."

Matthew, when he got to the meeting, related the incident.

"And what did you say in reply, Mr. Wilks?" said one of the ministers present.

"What could I?" was the characteristic reply.

A YANKEE and a Frenchman owned a pig in copartnership. When killing time came they wished to divide the carcass.—The Yankee was anxious to divide so that he could get both hindquarters, and persuaded the Frenchman that the proper way to divide was to cut it across the back.—The Frenchman agreed to it on condition that the Yankee would turn his back and take choice of the piece after it was cut in two. The Yankee turned his back, and the Frenchman asked:

"Vich peece will you have? Ze peece vid de tail on him, or de peece vat ain't got no tail on?"

"The piece with the tail!" shouted the Yankee, instantly.

"Don, by gar, you take him, and I take ze oder," said the Frenchman.

Upon turning round the Yankee found that the Frenchman had cut the tail off and stuck it in the pig's mouth.

A PREACHER, not long since, discoursing to the boys in New Hampshire State Reform School upon the fact that the good were respected while the bad were shunned, attempted to illustrate by saying, "Now, boys, when I walk on the street I speak to some and not to others; what now makes the difference?" supposing, of course, they would say, "Because some are good and some bad;" but he was much astonished to hear one little fellow sing out, "Because some are rich and some are poor."

A PARSON was roused from his sleep at five o'clock in the morning by loud talking at the side of a fish pond in his grounds.—His reverence put his night-capped head out of the window, and saw three men standing by the side of his pond. "What are you doing there?" said he. "Fishing" said they. "But you are traspassing on my land; you must go away." "Go to bed again," was the rejoinder; "your Master was not in the habit of sending away poor fishermen." The good clergyman could, of course, only turn in again.

SOME employments may be better than others; but there is no employment so bad as the having none at all. The mind will contract a rust and an unfitness for everything, and a man must either fill up his time with good, or at last innocent business, or it will run to the worst sort of waste—to sin and vice.

A GLUTTEN of a fellow was dining at a hotel, who, in the course of the "battle of knives and forks," accidentally cut his mouth, which being observed by a Yankee sitting near by, he bawled out, "I say friend don't make that hole in your countenance any larger, or we shall all starve to death."

A PAPER at Columbia, Pa., has the hardihood to make this announcement: "A talking match is on the tapis between two women of this town, though no bets have been made as yet. The time to talk is set down for forty-eight consecutive hours. Both will win."

WHEN is a man putting on his boots like Jupiter? When he's troubled with a tight-un (Titan).

NASBY.

A FUTILE ATTEMPT TO RATIFY THE NOMINATIONS AT THE CORNERS.

[From the Toledo Blade.]

POST OFFIS, CONFEDRIT X ROADS (which is in the State of Kentucky,) July 31, 1868.—We hed last night a ratification meeting at the Corners wich started out gloriously but didn't end so happily as it might. I hed gone to a good deal of trouble about it and hed made all arrangements for a feast uv reason and flow uv soul ekalled by few ratifications and surpassed by none.

The blessid Deacon, McPelter and Issaker Gavitt, who expect respectively to hold the posishen uv Assessor, Collector and Whisky Inspector for this district, came down handsomely with the funds, enuff to enable me to dekorate the post offis with flags and transparencies, and myself with a pare uv ready-made pants, which I muddied considerable to make em look old so that they shood not suspect that their funds hed bin applied in that way. Human necher is a is a inscrutable mystery. They would object did they know I hed clothed myself with their money instead uv wastin it on taller candles and sich, which burn out and leave nothin behind.

I wuz economikle in mo expenditoors, or ruther but little expense wuz nessary.—Desirin to wake the enthoosiasm uv the Democrisy, I procoored a passel uv Confedrit battle flags, wich the returned heroes hed brot home with em, and hed the talismanic words, "Seymore and Blair," painted across em. The effeck was gorgus! Ez nite approacht I hed the transparencies saved over from a celebrashen wich hed bin held after the battle uv Chickamauga lighted up. The enthoosiasm, ez the populace saw these, and listened to Captain McPelter, ez he red em to em, wuz overpowerin. How the cheered ez the words flasht out into the nite, "Southern Rites, Southern Men and a Southern Government!" "Death to Northern Hirelins!" "Down with the gorilla Linken!" "Jeff. Davis and the Confederacy forever!" "No quarter to Fedral invaders!" And when Boregard's black flag, onto wich "Seymour and Blair" wuz painted in red letters, wuz unfurled, ther arose sich cheers for the nominees uv the Noo York Convenshun ez I hed never heerd before, nor expect to agin.

At this time, jest ez everything wuz a gittin red-hot, the trouble commenced. Pennibacker, wich runs our biggest and and best distillery, jumpt onto the platform, at my suggestion, and preposed three cheers for Seymore and Greenbax and three groans for the bloated bondholders. The crowd, with troo Dimecratic docility, wuz agoin to cheer, when Bascom, who hez some 5.20s, riz and swore that he'e be d—d ef that shood be. "Guvernor Seymore is in avfor of payin the Nashnel indebtedness, principle and intrest, in gold. Reed his speech at the Cooper Instoot."

"Is he? is he?" shouted Pennibacker, springing onto the platform, "is he? Read the platform which he accepts!"

"Don't Bellmont and the eastern bankers support him?" yelled Bascom.

"Don't Vallandygum, Pendleton, Brick Pomroy and dirty shirt Dean support him?" yelled Pennibacker.

"Your doctrin," sed Bascom, excitedly, "is a swindle—a peece of theevin wich a Arab wood be ashamed uv, and Seymore sed so."

"Yoor proposishen is a outrage onto a opprest people, a grindin uv em into the earth under the iron heels of bloated aristocrats and pampered sons of luxury, and the platform Seymore stands onto sez so," shouted Pennibacker.

"Yoor a swindler," excitedly yelled Bascom, whereupon they clinched and rolled orf the platform titely huggin, and making extraordinary physikle efforts at injoorin each other.

To direct the attenshun uv the populis from this untoward circumstance, I rekested Issaker to sing out three cheers for Blare!

"Three cheers for Blare!" sung out Issaker, "the Missouri statesman, who will rid us uv Freedmen's Burows and military rool!"

"Three groans for Blare!" yelled Punt—"a Ablishinist and Linkin hirelin, wich shot my uncle in Missoury, and burnt my grandmother's house near Vixburg!"

"He aint no Ablishinist!" exclaimed Issaker, "reed his letters!"

"Its difficult to say wat he is to-day, but I'll sware to it he wuz three years ago, but it makes no difference. I swore four years ago to lick any man who hurrahed for any member of the Blare family."

And this infooriated wretch pounced onto Issaker, and they rolled off the stand to join Bascom and Pennibacker, who hedn't settled their onpleasantnis yet.

Before it ended, Deekin Pogram and Kernel McPelter got to arguing ez to the propriety uv recognizin niggers in the ranks uv the party, the Deekin takin one side and McPelter the other. The passions uv these estimable gentlemen wuz arouzed somewat, and before I cood interfere they had each other by the thorte and rolled orf onto the ground beneath the platform. I sprang down to separate em, when McPelter turned upon me, and wood have sacrificed me on the spot, but Corners rusht ez a man to save me. Ez I owe the most uv em I am entirely safe here, and ez I shel be until I pay my debts, I shel never die uv violence.

At this pint the fite became general.—Some uv the people sided with Bascom, some uv em with Pennibacker, (akkordin ez they brought whisky by the barl, or by the drink,) and the balance uv em assisted Bigler and Issaker Gavitt ez their inclinashen promptid em. In the melee the platform, flag and transparencies wuz tore down, nearly breakin my leg, for wich I was insuffishently remunerated by the hankerchers I borrored from the prostrate combatants under cover of assistin uv em to rise.

After the scrimmage wuz over Pollock and Bigler came, with three niggers, into Bascom's where we wuz repairin damages, wich remarkt that they hed held a meetin, and hed passed rosolooshens thankin the Lord devoutly for hevin releeved the Republikin party uv the Blare family, and sympathizin with the Dimocrisy wich hed reseeved em; and also acknowledging the obligashun the colored men uv the nashen were under to the Democrisy for the handsome manner in wich they hed treated Joe Williams, the Afrikin delegate to Noo York Convenshun, ez the selectin uv a nigger ez a delegate and assoshatin with him on terms uv ekality, wuz a step in the direction uv yooniversal Brotherhood wich wuz cheerin. The insultin message, delivered to men wich wuz a patchin up their faces and washin orf the blood uv a politikle conflick, wuz the reverse uv soothin.

The ratificashun wuzn't altogether a success, but we shel try it again after time hez softened the asperities engendered by the recent conflick, and the candidates hev hed time to fit theirselves and ther records to the platform. The Corners can be counted on. PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M., (Wich is Postmaster.)

"STUBBS, my dear fellow, isn't it about time you repaid me that little loan?"—"Augustus, my boy, it isn't a question of time, but a question of money."

POLITICAL ITEMS.

THE Detroit Advertiser says: "The original carpet-baggers were the Democratic patiots who, with a small roll of clothing under their arms, ran away to Canada to escape the draft."

HON. David Kilgore, who has been identified with the Johnson party of Indiana, and who for the past two years has been claimed by the Democrats, refuses to support either the Democratic State or National tickets. He goes for Grant, Colfax and Baker.

THE Providence Journal, speaking of General Hancock's defeat in Tammany Hall, says: Often as the gallant General has driven the Rebels before him, he found them in too great force on that day. He swept them away at Gettysburg, but they were altogether too strongly intrenched at Tammany."

THE Oneida Dispatch has found out why Seymour is a statesman. Because he is a war man in time of peace, and a peace man in time of war. In peace he is invincible, in war he is invisible. He never had anything to do with National affairs, except to oppose the draft and denounce the Union soldiers as "invaders" and "Lincoln's hirelings." Does that make him a statesman?

THERE is some curiosity to know who Frank Blair referred to in his letter as "carper-baggers." The Syracuse Journal says: "We presume he meant the fellows who two or three years ago, visited New York with their carpet-bags stuffed with combustible materials, to burn the city.—He may deny this interpretation, because they were all Democrats, and he will now expect their votes."

THE Vicksburg Times finds Blair just suited to its Rebel tastes. It says: "Objection is made down this way to the endorsement of the Blair letter by a few timid people, on the score of prudence, and yet it was this identical letter of Frank Blair to his friend, Colonel Broadhead, that secured the Missouri hero the nomination for Vice President. We want just such ammunition as Frank Blair uses."

IT is alleged that among the decorations of the hall in which the recent Democratic Convention of Kansas held its sittings was a Confederate flag. It was conspicuously suspended by the side of the Stars and Stripes, and so remained while the Convention was in session, from 2 o'clock in the afternoon till 1 o'clock the next morning, without a word of objection from any member of the body.

THE Oneida Dispatch says: "When Horatio first ran for Governor of this State, he went so far behind his ticket, that though every other candidate thereon was elected, he was thrashed and laid out by Washington Hunt. In 1854, he was again whipped by Myron H. Clark. In 1864, he was whipped for the third time, by Reuben E. Fenton. Accustomed to defeat, he is the proper man to lead the forlorn hope of the Democracy, in their last trip up Salt River."

SOME prominent men of the South appear to be laboring under the illusion that the war is not yet over. For instance, a Confederate named Williams, in addressing a so-called Democratic mass meeting at Shreveport, La., the other day, pitched into the North in the following style:

"We arraign them in the name of our own dearly beloved Confederate dead [cheers], whose bones are strewn all over the Southwest, killed in battle by the atrocious cruelty of the Radical Government.—[Cheers]."

A LEADING Democratic of Port Jervis, New York, in a note to the editor of The Union says: "I can't go Secession and Copperheadism as embodied in the nominations of the Democrats. I don't see it. I believe the best blood of this country was shed in putting down the most wicked and infernal of all rebellions. We must stick to our principles (all good Democrats and Republicans alike), and stand by the old flag, and tread under our feet the flag of secession and repudiation unfurled and borne by Horatio Seymour. I tell you we must whip them again, and we will do it."

A SHREWD Southern editor says: "The popularity of Seymour and Blair is something like the fever and ague—it cannot be found in any place where particular inquiry is made for it. In the settlements, where the "shakes" are supposed to have a lodgement, the people inform inquirers that they do not have them there, but the inhabitants of another place which they designate have them "awfully." So Eastern Democrats declare that their ticket, though not strong here, has great popularity in the West; and Western Democrats, while confessing to Democratic disappointment in that section, say that their ticket will run well in the East."

LOSS AND GAIN.—"The Confederate General Forrest lost $500,000 by the war."

Not only this. He lost the esteem of all honorable men. He lost a place among respectable and humane persons. But he gained the reputation of being the most brutal and blood-thirsty rebel who took up arms against the Government—a desperado before whose atrocities those of Nena Sahib fall into insignificance. And he has gained a place as leader in the Democratic party, which welcomed him approvingly in its National Convention, conferred upon him high place in its councils, and selected him to nominate its candidate for Vice President, who proposes to declare the legislation of Congress "null and void," and trample that body into the dust. The butcher of Fort Pillow is a most appropriate character to inaugurate the new era of revolution with which the Democracy threatens the country.—Albany Journal.

A CORRESPONDENT of The Meridien (Conn.) Republican says: "In December 1864, I was in New York, stopped at the St. Nicholas Hotel. At 10 o'clock, p. m., I went into the dining room to get a cup of tea, and opposite me at the table sat two gentlemen. One of the gentlemen said to the other, "What do you think of Grant's campaign?" (The general was then before Richmond.) The reply was, "The most stupendous military failure in the world." "How long," said the gentleman, "do you think the war will last?" "Four years longer," was the reply, "four years longer unless concessions are made to the South." I whispered in my waiter's ear: "Who is that gentleman?" indicating the one who had replied. He said, "Gov. Seymour."—It was the only time I ever saw the gentleman, but the incident made so strong an impression on my mind that I made a note of it, and here for the first time reproduce it. It was not much from a private individual, and would only at that time have marked him as a notorious Copperhead.—But now, as we are asked to make Gov. Seymour President, every incident becomes of consequence when it indicates his past character."

IT has been asked when the rain falls, does it ever get up? Of course it does—in dew-time.

WHY is my foot like a stable? Because there's a corn bin there.

WHAT IS IT?

The Democratic Platform is interpreted in the West to mean "greenbacks for bonds." In the East, it is interpreted to mean "appreciate greenbacks to gold in value, and then pay in gold."

SEYMOUR accepts the nomination with the Platform, but does not give it an interpretation! He leaves it to his friends to play "fast and loose," as may be necessary.

We know what he thought last March and last June, and give extracts from two of his speeches then made:

On the 11th of March, 1868, Mr. SEYMOUR, in a speech delivered before the New York State Convention, speaking of United States bonds, said:

"It is a mistake to suppose that they (bonds) are mostly held by capitalists.—Large sums belonging to children and widows, under the order of the courts or the action of Trustees, have been invested in Government bonds. The vast amounts held by fire and life insurance companies and savings banks ARE, IN FACT, HELD IN TRUST FOR AND ARE THE RELIANCE OF THE GREAT BODY OF THE ACTIVE BUSINESS OR LABORING MEN OR WOMEN. * * * The whole amount held in the State of New York, in various forms and trust, will not fall below $200,000,000. If we look into other States we shall see that only a small share of these bonds are held by men known as capitalists, but they belong in fact, if not in form, to the business men, the active and the laboring classes of society. THE DESTRUCTION OF THESE SECURITIES WOULD MAKE A WIDE-SPREAD RUIN AND DISTRESS, WHICH WOULD REACH INTO EVERY WORKSHOP AND EVERY DISTRICT HOWEVER HUMBLE."

Again, in the same speech, Mr. SEYMOUR says:

"It is a mistake to suppose that the interests of the bondholders and the tax-payers are antagonistic. The fact is overlooked that in order to make any saving by giving the bondholder a debased or worthless paper, we must bring upon ourselves disasters and dishonor which will cost an hundred fold what we can save. IT MEANS THAT WE ARE TO GIVE TO THE LABORER FOR HIS TOIL A DEBASED CURRENCY."

In the same speech he says:

"If we, the Democracy, come into power there will be no discredit on our currency, NO SPECULATION IN PAYING OUR BONDS IN PAPER."

To clinch this matter and put his position beyond controversey, he said in his Cooper Institute speech, June 26, 1858, as follows:

"Of all the devices to CHEAT honest labor, to PARALYSE honest industry, to DEGRADE public morals, and to TURN BUSINESS PURSUITS INTO RECKLESS GAMBLING, none have been so hurtful as a shifting standard of a debased and lying currency. * * *

"If we debase the currency by unwise issues, we shall equally perplex business and destroy sober industry, and make all prices mere matters of gambling tricks and chances. This will end as it did in the Southern Confederacy. At the onset the citizens of Richmond went to market with their money in their vest pockets, and brought back their dinners in their basket; in the end they took their money in their baskets and took home their dinners in their vest pockets."

And again, in the same speech:

"OUR CREDIT IS TAINTED. But for that, we could borrow money as Great Britain does, at three per cent. and cut down taxation."

And in the same speech he says:

"If your claims were all wiped out tomorrow by an issue of greenbacks, it would not relieve the fear of patriots: LABOR WOULD STILL BE CHEATED BY FALSE DOLLARS, our standard of value would still be shifting."

The Republicans tried to pass a bill to reduce the interest on Government bonds from six per cent. to 4½ and 4; but the Democracy fought the measure, and defeated it.

The Republicans desire to cut down taxation, and will do it, despite Copperhead opposition.

ASSASSINATIONS IN TEXAS.

The Galveston Bulletin of the 18th contains the following.

[From the Austin Republican, July 14.]

ASSASSINATION OF MR. COOLEY.

The following telegram was received by General E. J. Davis yesterday. It appears that even in the loyal county of Gillespie, where Rebels are as scarce as they are in Massachusetts—whose population is composed almost exclusively of unoffending, industrious and thirty Germans—even here the assassin's bullet must also penetrate.—We sincerely pray that Mr. Cooley's wound may not prove fatal. His death would prove a terrible blow to loyality in Western Texas:

"SAN ANTONIO, July 13, 1868.

To E. J. Davis, President, &c.:

"HON. A. O. Cooley, the only loyal member of the State Senate of 1866, was shot while standing in the door of his house in Fredericksburg on the 10th instant, by a Rebel assassin from Fayette county. Wound probably mortal."

"W. B. MOORE."

ANOTHER ASSASSINATION.

A letter has been received by General Davis, from Fort Bend county, stating that Wheelock H. Upton, a son of Judge Upton, of Refugio county, one of the most sterling Union men in Western Texas, was taken out by a mob of men last Friday a week ago and hung. Mr. Upton was a man of character, and no cause is known for his assassination, except the fact that he was well-known for his loyality.

This is but a sample of what is taking place in many parts of the South; and will be universal in that region, if the people by electing SEYMOUR and BLAIR, ratify the bloody programme boldly proclaimed at the New York Convention.

WADE HAMPTON, in his Baltimore speech, said they were only waiting in South Carolina till after the election, to begin! That event is too important to those bloody-minded conspirators to be endangered; so they wait, "nursing their wrath."

MOUNT AIRY, a small village on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, about 50 miles west of Baltimore, is inhabited by an interesting race, who can hardly be supposed to belong to the human family. One of the Eastern-bound trains was overtaken near that point by the dreadful tornado two weeks since, was detained all night, and narrowly escaped being washed into the river. The passengers had had nothing to eat for twenty-four hours, when they crawled out to test the hospitality of Mt. Airy, which a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette thus describes:

I went to a house and asked politely for something to eat.

"We have nothing for the d—d Yankees," was the reply; "I wish to God you had been all drowned." I went to several places with similar success. All this time our ladies were shivering in their wet clothes on the wet cushions of the cars.—There is no humanity in that community. At last, by going two miles to Ridgeville, where there is a sort of hotel, we got something to eat and something to bring to the ladies and children. We lay all night in the wet cars. There could no shelter be had for love or money. If any man doubts this, more than a score of men will corroborate my statement. Next day every one of us went out to hire private conveyances, and could find plenty of people ready to take us for exhorbitant sums. Sixty dollars and more were charged to different parties for a conveyance for thirty miles.—There was no chance to go one way or the other on the railroad for many days. I got a conveyance by paying nearly thirty dollars to Washington. Across the country I met several Rebels and talked with them. They cursed me for a "damned Yankee," and treated me most unkindly in every instance. As an example of their sentiments, let me give one specimen; said I to a Rebel Captain: "I suppose, sir, you are a Seymour man." "Seymour hell!" said he; "go on with your nigger show over the United States. We have nothing to do with you. We don't care a d—d which nigger you elect, Seymour or Grant."—"How are you, Copperheads," thought I.

THE Columbus Journal says: "The last act of the rebels, before the war, was to vote the Democratic ticket. The first act of the rebels, after the war, was to vote the Democratic ticket. As there was but one step from Democracy into rebellion, there was but one step from rebellion back into Democracy."

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

In our local columns will be found the proceedings of the Republican County Convention on Monday. The proceedings were unusually harmonious—the resolutions have the right ring—and the Ticket presented is a strong one.

The nomination of Hon. JOHN CESSNA, of Bedford, was unanimously approved, as was also the nomination of Col. WM. D. DIXON, of Franklin, for State Senate. Both these gentlemen come before the people with records commending them to the confidence and cordial support of the Republican party. Col. DIXON did gallant service in the field, in connection with the famous Pennsylvania Reserves, and will make a good and reliable legislator.—Mr. CESSNA was for many years one of the most prominent Democratic leaders in this State, and lead the Douglas portion of the Pennsylvania delegation in the Charleston Convention in 1860. When, however, the Democratic party proved faithless to the country, and refused a cordial support to the Government in its efforts to put down the Rebellion, Mr. CESSNA abandoned it and gave the weight of his intellect and energy to the preservation of the Government. Possessed of indomitable energy—a bold and fearless campaigner—he will be found in the fore-front of the conflict this fall, and our readers will have opportunity in due time to hear his eloquent [illegible]

CHARLES G. MILLER, the nominee for Assembly is a young man of fine ability, a good speaker, and thoroughly devoted to Republican principles. He comes from Democratic stock, but entered the army as a member of Co. I, 127th Pa. Regiment—was wounded at Fredericksburg Va., and still suffers from the wound then received.—He came out of the army thoroughly devoted to the Union, and has since voted and worked as he fought—for the Government against Treason.

No better man could have been selected for the office of Associate Judge than JOHN PICKING. Possessed of rare business capacity, honest as steel, conscientious in the discharge of every duty, with an enlarged experience as to the routine of Court business—he would adorn the bench, and be of great service to the people of the County in the multifarious business claiming the attention of Associate Judges.

JACOB A. KITZMILLER also promptly volunteered at the call of his country, as member of Co. B., 138th Pa. Regiment, and served about 25 months, until the battle of Spotsylvania Court-house, where he lost an arm, and was honorably discharged. He has served three years as Prothonotary, and has proved one of the most efficient, courteous and acceptable Prothonotaries the County has had. If the people of the County consult their interests, they will re-elect him.

Mr. COVER has faithfully discharged the duties of District Attorney during the past term—running ahead of the ticket three years ago, and handsomely beating his present opponent, Mr. DUNCAN. We do not know why he should not do it again this fall. A good lawyer, courteous, accommodating, and deservedly popular, he will make a strong poll.

Messrs. BASEHOAR, NEWMAN, and FLICKINGER—the nominees for Commissioner, Director and Auditor—are all substantial men, of sound judgment, well known, and peculiarly fitted to administer the duties of their respective offices with acceptance and to the interests of the taxpayers of the County.

The soldier element has another worthy representation in Lieut. McMILLAN, the nominee for Surveyor, who served as a private in the three months service under the first call for troops, and subsequently for three years in Cole's Cavalry, being promoted to a Lieutenancy for honorable service. He is moreover a practical Surveyor, and a young man of unblemished character.

Such, Republicans of Adams, is in brief the Ticket presented for your support. Let us go to work and elect it.

THE Copperheads of the XVth Congressional District are in a condition of great excitement. DICK HALDEMAN, a "carpet-bagger" as his enemies call him, who recently moved into Cumberland—for political purposes, as is alleged—has run off with the nomination for Congress, his "pile" proving larger than anybody else's. He carried Cumberland as announced last week, and Perry by a majority of six in the Convention. Glosbreuner only nominally carried York. Judge Ebaugh, John M. Heiges and others having defeated the proposition in Convention to give him the choice of Conferees, and having chosen two of the three who are personally unfriendly to him.

A portion of the Democracy revolt at the idea of supporting HALDEMAN, who is alleged to have been badly mixed up, while in Europe, with intrigues favoring the recognition of the Southern Confederacy by the French Government; and talk of another candidate. But nothing definite has developed.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

WHEN Bob Toombs and Frank Pierce shake hands over the Democratic nominations it is time for all loyal men to vote the other way.

"GRANT has got to work early if he expects to get a victory," quoth a Democrat. "He 'worked' Early once in the Shenandoah and got one," quoted a Republican.

THE New York Sun says that the Wade Hampton, Cobb, and Toombs speeches in favor of Seymour and Blair are having the same effect upon the Democratic party that the guns of Sumter had—a dissolving effect!

HON. John S. Carlisle, formerly of West Virginia, and United States Senator under the restored Government, now residing in Baltimore, declares emphatically for Grant and Colfax, and will take the stump for them.

A PROMINENT Democrat of Burlington, Iowa, and recently a member of the Common Council of that city, but now in California, writes to his friends in Burlington that California will go for Grant by 25,000 majority. The Hawk Eye says that other letters received from old residents, now on the Pacific coast, say that both California and Oregon are sure for Grant.

WHO encouraged rebellion? The Democratic party. Who aided rebellion? The Democratic party. Who refused to aid Union soldiers fighting against rebels?—The Democratic party. Who frowned at Union and gloried in Rebel victories? The Democratic party. Who predicted the defeat of the effort to conquer the rebellion? The Democratic party. Who refused soldiers a vote while they were in the field? The Democratic party. Who refused bounties to volunteers? The Democratic party. Who denied aid to families of volunteers? The Democratic party. Who decried the National credit? The Democratic party. Who insist that treason is not a punishable crime? The Democratic party. Can any man with his right senses, a just regard for the National honor, for his own safety and the perpetuity of the Government, vote to sustain the Democratic party? Answer, American freemen!

THE Westminster Gazette, a Catholic paper, published in London, says: "A party of 55 Canadian volunteers for the Papal army have just passed through Paris on their way to Marseilles to embark for Civita Vecchia. The Univers states that they have with them a negro newly converted to Catholicism, and who for that reason has been disinherited by his family. He is going to Rome to complete his theological studies, and prepare for the priesthood. These volunteers have subscribed to pay his traveling expenses.—What will Democracy say to this? We suppose that they will "pitch into" the Pope for carrying on the Church without making distinction of race or color. A negro to be a priest!

HOWELL COBB, one of the original conspirators under Buchanan, in his Seymour and Blair ratification speech, at Atlanta, expressed himself in the following defiant language: "In war we drew the sword and bade them defiance, in peace we gather up the manhood of the South, and raising the banner of constitutional equality, and gathering around it the good men of the North as well as the South, we hurl into their teeth to-day the same defiance, and bid then come on to the struggle.—We are ready for it if you are." [Great applause.] Those who like this kind of talk and think the spirit back of it is just the thing, should do all they can to secure the election of the Tammany ticket.

THADDEUS STEVENS.

Funeral Services—Honors to his Memory—His Will:

[From the Washington Star, Friday.]

AT THE CAPITOL.

The funeral of the Hon. Thaddeus Stevens took place this morning at nine o'clock, in the rotunda of the Capitol. The body laid in state and the rotunda was open all night, in order that the public could have a last view of the departed statesman. A guard of honor, composed of twenty-five members of the Butler Zouaves, remained with the corpse, and an extra force of the Capitol police was on duty. From seven until ten o'clock last evening a continual stream of visitors were passing through, a large number of whom were colored, and many of them appeared deeply affected at the loss of him who had so faithfully advocated liberty and justice for all. By eleven o'clock the crowd began to thin off, and by midnight quite reigned in the Capitol.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE FUNERAL

Were commenced at an early hour this morning and by seven o'clock the crowd began to assemble. The visitors, upon entering the rotunda, passed around the coffin to have a last look at the illustrious dead, a sentinel being stationed at each corner of the catafalque to direct persons and prevent a crowd from assembling about the coffin.

The body bearers, eight gentleman from Lancaster county, who accompanied the remains, were Messrs. J. N. Parke, Samuel Houston, S. S. Strachan, R. Jenkin Jacobs, James Cross, E. S. Brosius, W. F. Martin and J. V. Easton. They were all attired in black, with black gloves, and crape upon the left arm and hat, and will act as pall-bearers until they reach Lancaster.

Senator Trumbull entered the rotunda a short time before the commencement of the services, and after looking at the corpse took a position near the head. Shortly after Senator Sumner entered and stood near Senator Trumbull. The committee on the part of the Washington City Councils, composed of Aldermen Clark, Cook, Larman, Councilmen Sardo, L. B. S. Miller, Chase, Kelsey, Davis, Stewart and Taylor, assembled in the rotunda about 8 o'clock to join the procession.

APPEARANCE OF THE BODY.

The features of the deceased had changed considerably since yesterday. The eyes and temples were very much sunken, and the face was of an almost saffron hue, and dotted with purple blotches. The lips, eyelids and temples were turning quite dark, while on each side of the neck were evidences of a change of the same nature.

The coffin was of rosewood covered with black cloth, with heavy silver handles, the hinges of each of which were beautiful representations of an American shield. On the lid of the coffin was a massive silver plate, bearing the following inscription: "Thaddeus Stevens. Born April 4th, 1792. Died August 11th, 1868, at minnight."—The coffin and catafalque were covered with immortelles, the odor of which was perceptible all over the rotunda.

At fifteen minutes past 8 o'clock the ministers, attending physician, the family, servants and friends of the deceased, entered the rotunda by the east door in the following order: Sergeant-at-Arms Brown and General Ekin, Rev. Dr. Gray, Chaplain of the Senate, and Dr. Noble Young, attending physician to the deceased, Rev. Dr. Emery and Rev. Dr. Hamilton; the family of the deceased—Mr. Simon Stevens, Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, Jr., J. Scott Patterson, Master Willie H. Boughter, page to Mr. Stevens, Mrs. Smith, his housekeeper, and the servants of his household.

The family having been seated around the coffin Rev. Dr. Emery arose and read from the 90th Psalm: "Lord thou has been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God."

He next read from the 15th chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Corinthians, 20th verse: "But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept."

The reading having been concluded, Rev. Dr. Gray arose and delivered an appropriate sermon.

Rev. Dr. Hamilton then offered a fervent prayer, imploring the throne of Divine Grace to have mercy on the departed soul, for the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. He next prayed for the blessings of Heaven upon the family of deceased and those who had so kindly watched by him and administered to him during his last illness. He prayed that the funeral train might might be watched over and prevented from accident on its way to Lancaster; and finally that we might all so live that our days should be devoted to the service of our God, and when our work upon earth be finished we might all be gathered to eternal happiness.

Dr. Hamilton then pronounced the benediction, and the friends gathered around the coffin to have a last sad look at the deceased.

At 10 o'clock, the remains left Washington in a special train, with the guard of honor, relatives and distinguished officials, reaching Lancaster at a late hour in the evening. All along the route, at Baltimore, York, Harrisburg, &c., large crowds collected to do honor to the illustrious dead.

Gov. Geary issued the following Proclamation:

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
HARRISBURG PA., August 14th 1868.

To the People of Pennsylvania:

The death of the oldest member of the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress, Thaddeus Stevens, is an event which to-day shrouds the Commonwealth in gloom.—Though not a native of the State, Thaddeus Stevens' most earnest efforts were always devoted to its interest and glory, and his name will ever be associated with all that is great in the progress of the last quarter of a century, as well as all that pertains to statesmanship in the struggle to preserve and perpetuate the American Union.

The people of Pennsylvania owe to the enlarged statesmanship of Thaddeus Stevens the initiation of the system of public improvements which has since developed the resources of the State, and rendered its prosperity the subject of wonder, and admiration at its wisdom & nd liberality. We are indebted to him for our present magnificent system of free schools. The children of the poor are enabled to reach a degree of cultivation beyond which the wealthiest and most favored of other lands cannot go. As a member of the Convention which revised and amended the State Constitution; as representative in the lower branch of the Legislature, and as Canal Commissioner, the late Mr. Stevens displayed the same great abilities which distinguished him as a jurist in the highest courts and as a leader in the councils of the nation. The memory of the services of the illustrious dead, of his many grand traits of character, of his great and cultivated intellect, of his irresistible abilities as a jurist and as a legislator, and of his generous and munificent charities, will never die. It will survive the recollection of man, and forever live in the records of our courts, our State and National Legislatures, in the history of our country, to which he was so ardently attached, and in the hearts of his countrymen, whom he so immortally honored and so faithfully served. It is directed that all the Departments of the State Government be closed after 12 o'clock on Monday, that the national flags be displayed at half-mast, at the same time, on all the public buildings of the State.

(Signed) JOHN W. GEARY.

ARRIVAL AT LANCASTER.

The remains reached Lancaster at 6. 15, and were met at the depot by an immense concourse of people. Arrangements were made for the final funeral services on Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

THE CLOSING CEREMONIES.

LANCASTER, Aug. 17, 1868.

The funeral ceremonies connected with the interment of the remains of the illustrious statesman, Thaddeus Stevens, constituted one of the grandest, most imposing and impressive pageants of the kind that ever occurred in the United States. It was a fitting sequel to to the useful and vastly important, though stormy career of the great champion of equal rights and universal suffrage, the city of Lancaster presented a sight that will long be remembered by its denizens; and one of the most striking occurrences that will retain a place on the minds of the rising generation of Lancaster will be the remembrance of Thaddeus Stevens' funeral.

Not only the county of Lancaster, but the State at large, poured its thousands into the town this morning, to testify by their presence their respect for the memory of the man who devoted his entire life to enhance the prosperity of his fellow-citizens.

Excursion trains reached the city from different points, all densely crowded with passengers, and as the day wore on the streets became absolutely impassable. The late residence of Mr. Stevens was besieged during the day by thousands of citizens anxious to catch a last glimpse of the features of the departed. Long before the time announced for the funeral procession to move, the broad throughfare in front of the house was literally packed with people, and even the house itself was the object of considerable observation.

The route of the procession from the residence to the graveyard was so densely crowded that at some points it was with great difficulty that the funeral cortege could force its way through. It is estimated that the city to-day contained at least twenty thousand strangers, all having a common object in view, namely, to see Thaddeus Stevens' funeral. As a mark of respect to the deceased, all the stores of the city were closed, and business was entirely suspended. But for the presence of the immense crowd, a stranger in the city would suppose it was the Sabbath day. The utmost order prevailed, and the countenance of every person you met wore an expression of seriousness and sadness. It was apparent that a national calamity had fallen upon the people.

Many of the houses were draped in mourning, and American flags shrouded with black met the eye in every direction. The railroad depot was appropriately draped, and bore on its front a likeness of Mr. Stevens, surmounted with emblems of mourning. As the funeral procession filed through the streets, the church bells tolled out solemn peals, and, notwithstanding the presence of so many thousands, scarcely a whisper could be heard.

The colored race turned out in large numbers, and their faces plainly indicated that they felt that they had lost their best friend and ardent champion for their rights and privileges.

The funeral procession was large, embracing various Benevolent Associations, Fire Companies, distinguished officials and citizens. The religious ceremonies at the grave were very impressive. Rev. W. V. Gotwald read the Lutheran burial service for the dead, after which Rev. Dr. Mombert delivered an able and eloquent discourse.—A select choir sang a funeral anthem beginning—

"Go to thy rest in peace,
And soft be thy repose;
Thy toils are o'er, thy troubles cease.
From earthly cares in sweet release
Thine eyelids gently close."

THE COFFIN IN THE GRAVE.

The coffin was lowered into the grave at four o'clock and twenty minutes. Rev. J. T. Harlock offered prayer, and Rev. Dr. Gray, Chaplain of the United States Senate, pronounced the following final address:

Citizens of Lancaster and people of Pennsylvania:—We have brought home your illustrious dead—not yours only, but ours, not ours, but the nation's. Our journey from the capital to your city was marked very appropriately by flags at half mast, by tolling of bells, and the tears of the people; and to-day while we are engaged in these sad obsequies, could we hear, there would come to our ears from afar the wail of sorrow and the sounds of grief. Could we see, we should behold not individuals only, but whole States standing, waiting around as pall-bearers. We had hoped that a favoring Providence would have spared your Representatives at least till the close of another session of Congress, for grave questions are pending involving the interests of thirty millions of people, which seem to us to require pre-eminently his wise counsel and executive skill; but it is otherwise ordered, and no doubt wisely; therefore, we bow in submission to the will of the Supreme Ruler, who, when the clock of time struck the hour, sent His angel to unbar the gates of the future, and said to his servant, "Well done, come up higher;" and now, till the morning of the resurrection, we commit all that remains of our departed friend to the grave, and to the guardianship of that God who watches alike over the living and the dead; and as the mouth of the grave closes upon this sacred dust, we will pray God to give to Vermont another son, to Lancaster another citizen, to Pennsylvania another statesman, to the country another patriot, to the poor another friend, to the freedmen another advocate, to the race another benefactor, and to the world another man like Thaddeus Stevens.

The benediction was then pronounced and the crowd dispersed.

THADDEUS STEVENS' WILL.

The will of the late Hon. Thaddeus Stevens was admitted to probate on Tuesday. It is in the handwriting of the deceased, and reads as follows:

Last Will and Testament of Thaddeus Stevens, of Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

I give all my estate, real and personal, to my trustees and executors, hereinafter named, and their heirs, on condition nevertheless that they will dispose of it as hereinafter directed by the payment of the several sums mentioned. They will reduce such of the property as they deem proper to cash, and put the nett proceeds at interest by investing the same in government securities at not less than six per cent. per annum.—I direct them to pay to the town of Peacham, State of Vermont, one thousand dollars, the interest whereof at six per cent. to be applied in aid of the juvenile library association, which was formed at the Caledonia County Academy, if the same is still in existence, and continue to pay the same so long as the same continues in active operation.

I give and bequeath to the trustees or titleholders of the graveyard in which my mother and brother Alanson are buried, in the town of Peacham, Vermont, five hundred dollars, to be put at interest perpetually, and the interest to be paid annually to the Sexton, on condition that he keep the graves in good order, and plant roses and other cheerful flowers at each of the four corners of said graves, every Spring. If either of the said legacies should lapse, the same to go to the support of the Baptist Church or meeting nearest to Danville Centre, my native town in Vermont.

I direct one hundred dollars to be put at compound interest, and the aggregate amount to be paid to Thaddeus Stevens Brown, son of John E. Brown, of Philadelphia, at age.

I give two thousand dollars to my nephew, Dr. Thaddeus M. Stevens, of Indianapolis. I give to his sister, Mrs. Kauffman, one thousand dollars. I give to George F. Stevens, son of Simon Stevens, one thousand dollars, to be put at interest and paid to him by his father when he arrives at age.

I give to Mrs. Lydia Smith, my housekeeper, five hundred dollars a year during her natural life, to be paid semi-annually; or at her option, she may receive five thousand dollars. She may make her election, and then release all further claims on my estate. Mrs. Smith has some furniture of her own, used in common with mine, some bought with her own money, as well as others, which it would be difficult to distinguish. Now, she must be trusted on honor to take such as she claims, without further proof.

I give to my nephew, Captain Thaddeus Stevens, now at Caledonia, my gold watch.

I give to my nephew, Captain Thaddeus Stevens, eight hundred dollars a year, to be paid half yearly. If by reason of sickness he need more, at the discretion of the trustees. None of the legacies, except the annuities, will be paid for three years, during which time the house I now live in, and furniture and books, will remain as they are, except the miscellaneous books, which may be sold at any time. Mrs. Smith may occupy the house the first year, and if Thaddeus, son of Morrill, prefers to keep house to boarding, he may keep house there with her, or with any one else, during the three years or any part thereof. If at the end of three years, Thaddeus Stevens prefers some other mode of living, then the trustees shall dispose of said property as they may deem best. While it is occupied by my nephew, he shall be charged with three hundred dollars a year rent for it. The property occupied by Mr. Effinger, after adding two feet of the lot in width to the other lot, may be sold. As five thousand dollars have been offered for it, it should not go for less.

The Furnace and all other real estate may be rented or sold. The Furnace must not be worked longer than to consume the stock on hand. If at the end of any five years, Thaddeus, nephew, shall have shown that he has totally abstained from all intoxicating drinks through that time, the trustees may convey to him one-fourth of the whole property. If at the end of the next successive five years, he shall show that he has totally abstained from all intoxicating drinks, they may convey to him one-fourth, being one half of the property. If at the end of another consecutive five years he shall show that he has abstained from all intoxicating drinks, they may convey the whole to him, in fee simple. If he shall get married before the house I live in is sold, he shall receive the same, and occupy it without sale.

If the life estate of my nephew, or rather the annuity said Capt. Thaddeus Stevens, of Vermont, should expire before he has enabled himself to become entitled to the corpus or fee simple of my estate, then I dispose of whatever may remain as follows: If the aggregate sum shall amount to fifty thousand dollars, without which no further disposition can be made, I give it all to my trustees to erect, establish and endow a house of refuge for the relief of the homeless and indigent orphans. Those shall be deemed orphans who have lost either parent. I devise twenty thousand dollars to be expended in erecting suitable buildings, the residue to be secured in government securities, bearing not less than six per cent. interest. I wish the buildings to be erected in the city of Lancaster, south of King street, provided sufficient ground, not less than two acres, shall be donated therefor.—If not, then at the west side of said street, on same conditions. If sufficient ground is not gratuitously offered, then I direct it to be built at Columbia. The orphans who cannot be bound out, may remain in the institution until the age of fifteen years, and longer, if infirm, at the discretion of the trustees. They shall all be carefully educated in the various branches of an English education, and in all industrious trades and pursuits. This must be left to the discretion of the authorities. No preference shall be shown on account of race or color in the admission or treatment. Neither poor Germans, Irish or Mohomedans, nor any others on account of their race or their religion or their parents, must be excluded. All the inmates shall be educated in the same classes and manner without regard to the color. They shall be fed at the same table. The dormitories to be under the direction of the authorities. The trustees shall provide an act of incorporation at some convenient time. This I declare to be my last will and testament, and name as my executors and trustees, Anthony E. Roberts, O. J. Dickey, and Edward McPherson, this thirteenth day of July 1867.

Signed. THADDEUS STEVENS.

Witnessed in the presence of Edward Riley and Christopher Dice.

The Codicil to the will is as follows:

I, Thaddeus Stevens, of Lancaster, make and declare this a codicil to my last will and testament:

Item—I bought John Shertz' property at Sheriff's sale, much below its value. I only want my own. All except three hundred dollars, the proceeds of it, and the interest, I direct shall be returned to the estate.

Item—If within five years of my death the Baptist brethern should build a house of public worship in the city of Lancaster, for the purpose of worshipping according to their creed, I direct one thousand dollars to be paid towards its cost. I do this out of respect for the memory of my mother, to whom I owe what little of prosperity I had, and which, small as it is, I desire emphatically to acknowledge.

Item—If my nephew, Major Thaddeus Stevens, should get married before my decease he will be at liberty to take possession of and hold in fee the house in which I now dwell, with the furniture thereof; and I in that event remove all the restrictions which I place upon the devise of that property in the body of my will. I hereby exclude the corner property, now occupied by Effinger, from this provision.

Item—In eight years after my decease, if my estate shall have sufficiently accumulated to do it without embarrassment, I direct one thousand dollars to be paid to the Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg, for the use of Stevens' Hall. I hereby request O. J. Dickey, Esq., to act as executor to this codicil.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand and eight hundred and sixty-seven.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CUMBERLAND.—The Republicans of Cumberland county have nominated the following ticket: Assembly, Capt. J. V. Gish, of Shippensburg; District Attorney, Wm. B. Parker, of Carlisle; Commissioner, W. S. Woods, of Carlisle; Director of Poor, John Sadler, of Mechanicsburg; Auditor, Thomas McClune, of East Pennsboro'; County Surveyor, John A. Line, of Dickinson; Coroner, James M. Allen, of Carlisle.—Mary Rockafellow has been appointed Postmaster at Mechanicsburg, in place of Robert Wilson removed.

YORK.—The Republicans of York county have nominated the following ticket: Associate Judge, Wm. Danner, York; Assembly, James Griffith, Warrington, and Henry Keyser, L. Chanceford; Commissioner, John Sharp, Dover; County Surveyor, John Eichelberger, Monaghan; Director, Capt. John Klugh, Franklin; District Attorney, Leander H. Myers, York; Auditor, Tempest D. Drorbaugh, Newberry. —Hon. Edward McPherson addressed a Grant and Colfax meeting in York the evening of the 11th inst.—Rev. George Parsons, of Milton, has accepted the call to the Lutheran Church in Hanover.

THE Mobile Tribune has no doubts about the real issue of the impending contest. The principles of the late Rebellion are again to be fought for, first at the ballot-box, and if defeated there the discussion will be removed to the battle-field. Ballots first, to keep up appearances, and then bullets. The Tribune puts the case plainly: "Friends—fellow citizens of Mobile—comrades of the Queen City of the Gulf! let us make one more effort in behalf of our rights and our liberties. If we are successful in the approching contest we shall regain all that we lost in the 'Lost Cause.'"

IN an admirable impromptu speech by Hon. Schuyler Colfax, subsequent to his great reception speech at South Bend to thousands of his constituents who met to welcome him home, he uttered these words, which ought to be written on the banners of the campaign: "LOYALTY SHALL GOVERN WHAT LOYALTY PRESERVED."

CONVERSION of the Seven-thirty bonds has been stopped. All persons holding such bonds can now have them redeemed, but Secretary McCulloch has determined not to convert any more of them into Five-twenties.

BUILDING LUMBER, &c.—The attention of Farmers, Builders, Contractors, and others, is invited to the large assortment of LUMBER of all kinds suitable for building purposes, to be found at Col. C. H. BUEHLER's Lumber Yard, at corner of Carlisle street and Railroad depot, including Boards, Planks, Flooring, Siding, Laths, Pickets, Shingles, &c.—Also Posts, hewed and sawed, with prime Fencing Boards, white Pine and Hemlock. His stock is not only large, but his arrangements are such that he can sell at the very lowest cash rates. Also, constantly on hands Black-smith, Lime-Burners' and Stove COAL. tf

☞It is only necessary to give Mr. Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" a fair and judicious trial, to be fully convinced that they are superior to any other offered to the public, or to the medical profession, as a remedy for debility arising from the inactivity of the different functions of the system. Their base is his Wine, combined with the bitter principle of the best tonics, (herbs and roots,) known to practical chemists. See his advetisement in another column, or his circulars at the principal Drug Stores. 1t

Special Notices.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED, whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 18 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 594 New York, and 104 South 10th street, Philadelphia, Pa. PRICE—$1.25 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $6.50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere. [Aug. 7-2m

DEAFNESS, BLINDNESS AND CATARRH, treated with the utmost success, by Dr. J. ISAACS, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of Leyden, Holland,) No. 805 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa. Testimonials from the most reliable sources in the City and Country can be seen at his office. The medical faculty are invited to accompany their patients, as he has no secrets in his practice. Artificial Eyes inserted without pain. No charge made for examination.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The Society invites the exhibition of any and every thing that may be useful or convenient in the practice of Agriculture or Horticulture, or be the product of either; all articles and implements of convenience or use in the domestic or social life, or of all the products of art and skill, and for all such things of merit, although not enumerated in the foregoing list, premiums or diplomas may be awarded.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

All awarded premiums uncalled for, for thirty days after the close of the Fair, shall be deemed donated to the Society.

Premiums shall not be awarded when the animal or the article is deemed unworthy.

All articles must be marked with cards, which will furnished by the Secretary, designating class and number; and these cards must not be removed until after the Awarding Committees have finished their examinations.

The Executive Committee will take every possible precaution for the safe keeping of all articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangement, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. They desire exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals or articles, and at the close of the Fair attend to their removal.

No animal or article shall be taken out of the Fair Grounds without the leave of the President.

Exhibitors are expected to obey the Marshals promptly in producing their stock, when instructed to do so; and any person proving refractory will be ruled out from competing.

No animal or article will be assigned a place on the grounds until the entries are made, as the regulations of the Society require.

Persons renting refreshments booths will not be permitted to sell intoxicating drinks.

Any person found intoxicated upon the Fair Grounds, or acting in a disorderly manner, shall be immediately ejected from the grounds.

A prompt and severe example will be made of any fraudulent use of Admission Tickets.

Any person attempting to interfere with the judges, in their adjudications, will be promptly excluded from competition.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of the entry or any other important matter which the committee feel incompetent to decide, they may at once report the same to the President.

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, August 21, 1868.

CAMP-MEETING.—The colored Camp-meeting in Wolf's Grove, near this place, will commence on Wednesday next, August 26th.

SERVICES.—Rev. JOSEPH WAUGH will preach in the Marsh Creek Church on Sabbath Aug. 23, at 10 o'clock A. M.; and in the Church at Hunterstown at 3 o'clock of the same day.

STOLEN.—A mare belonging to DAVID P. BEITLER, of Mountjoy township, was stolen on the night of the 9th inst. A reward of $30 for the return of the mare and $200 for the arrest and conviction of the thief is offered by the York Insurance Company, in which the mare was insured.

TO BE FORWARDED.—We are requested to say that the box of Clothing, &c., for the sufferers by the flood at Ellicott's Mills, will be sent off during the coming week. Persons desiring to contribute will please leave their contributions promptly at Mr. SCHICK'S Store.

The friends of Grant and Colfax held an enthusiastic meeting at Waynesboro, Pa. last Saturday evening. Speeches were made by Mr. VOLNEY ROGERS, the obliging telegraph operator, and others—We regret that we have not space to publish the speech of Mr. ROGERS, as it was very able and deserving the consideration of all who have the love of their country at heart.

HANOVER COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—We invite attention to the Card of this Institution, the fall session of which will commence Sept. 1. Rev Mr. KOONS, the Principal, is an accomplished and successful Teacher, of enlarged experience. Besides the usual English branches, instruction will be given in Greek and Latin as part of the regular course—French and German extra.

PIC NICS.—A Pic Nic will be held to-morrow in King's Woods, near East Berlin, day and evening. The East Berlin and Littlestown Brass Bands will be present. Refreshments on the ground.

A Harvest Pic Nic will come off at the Cashtown Springs, to-morrow—to be continued during the evening. Suitable music will be provided and refreshments on the ground.

The Union Sunday School of Bendersville will have a Basket Pic Nic in Wilson's Grove near Bendersville, on Saturday, the 29th of August. The public are invited.

COUNTY FAIR.—In another column will be found the list of Premiums to be awarded at the next Fair of the Adams County Agricultural Society to be held in September. The premiums have been increased in nearly every department, in many cases a hundred per cent. But for the fact that the Society is in debt, they would have been made larger yet. The management hope that the citizens of the county will immediately enter upon preparations to make this even a more successful Fair than that of last year. County pride, if nothing else, should stir up general interest in its behalf.

The work on the front building is progressing rapidly, and Mr. CHRITZMAN, the contractor, expects to have it finished in time for the Fair.

The grounds will be open for the training of horses during two weeks preceding the Fair.

AUGUST COURT.—Court is still in session as we go to press. The following cases have thus far been disposed of:

COMMON PLEAS.

Ashland Iron Company vs. Enoch Lefevre, John Green and John Vanhyning.—Replevin for 400 tons of unwashed Iron Ore. The Jury found for Enoch Lefevre, one of the defendants, and for the Plaintiffs against the other two defendants $690.95, subject to the decision of a point reserved by the Court, whether the Plffs., being a foreign corporation, can maintain this suit in Pennsylvania.

James G. Spaulding vs. Levi A. Caskey. Action on a sealed note. Verdict for the Plaintiff for $143.87.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Commonwealth vs. William R. Anders. Indicted for stealing $5, property of Henry Pensyl. Deft. plead guilty, and was sentenced to County Jail one month.

Com. vs. Same. Indicted for larceny of various articles of clothing, property of Jacob C. Pensyl. Deft. plead guilty, and was sent to Eastern Penitentiary for one year.

Com. vs. Same. Indicted for larceny of watch and money of Henry Pensyl. Deft. plead guilty, and was sent to County Jail 6 months.

Com. vs. George Randle. Indictment for larceny, ignored by Grand Jury.

Com. vs. John Lochludge. Indicted for larceny of watch and money, property of Aaron Wolf. Deft. plead guilty, and sent to County Jail 6 months.

Com. vs. Ammon Lease. Indicted for Adultery, Fornication and Bastardy, on information of Elizabeth McFarland. Deft. plead guilty, and sentenced to 6 months in County Jail, pay a fine of $25, and to pay prosecutrix $40 lying in expenses, and $1 per week for support of the child until 5 years of age.

Com. vs. George Willard. Indicted for larceny of silver spoons and ladle, property of his mother, Louisa Willard. Deft. plead guilty, and sentenced to County Jail three months.

Com. vs. Adam Hoelter. Indicted for larceny and receiving stolen goods, property of Lewis Camplain. Deft. plead guilty and sentenced to County Jail four months.

Com. vs. John O'Ceaf. Indicted for larceny of shoes, property of John Johns.—Deft. plead guilty, and sentenced to County Jail four months.

Com. vs. John Murphy. Indicted for Assault and Battery, on person of Philip Hoffman. Deft. plead guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs.

Com. vs. John Boblitz. Indicted for selling liquors without license. Deft. plead guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs.

Com. vs. Edward Wentz. Indicted for selling liquors without license. Defendant plead guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of of $10 and costs.

Com. vs. Henry Reaser. Indictment for selling liquors without license. Defendant plead guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs.

Com. vs. Charles Wolford, James Bowers, and Wm. Trout. Indictment for Malicious Mischief, on information of Henry Heagy. Ignored, and prosecutor to pay costs.

Com. vs. Jacob Johns. Indictment for Larceny. Ignored by Grand Jury.

Com. vs. Abraham Trostle. Indictment for Forcible Entry and Detainer, on information of Peter Beitler. Deft. refused to employ counsel and claimed the right to defend his own case. The Jury found the defendant not guilty, on account of being of unsound mind. The Court ordered the defendant to be committed to the Lunatic Asylum at Harrisburg.

Com. vs. Simon S. Bishop. Indictment for misdemeanor in office. Ignored by Grand Jury, and prosecutor, Dr. R. S. Siess, to pay costs.

Com. vs. Geo. W. Weikert, Reindollar, and others. Indictment for forcible entry and detainer. Indictment ignored, and prosecutor, Dr. R. S. Siess, to pay costs.

Com. vs. Mary Zellner. Indictment for Assault and Battery on information of Lena Betzell. Ignored, and prosecutrix to pay costs.

Com. vs. Lena Betzell and Mary Betzell, on information of Mary Zellner. Indictment for Assault and Battery. Ignored, and prosecutrix to pay costs.

COLLEGE AND SEMINARY.—In our brief notice last week of the exercises connected with the College and Seminary, we necessarily, in the hurry of going to press, omitted several items, which we now supply.

The Alumni of the Theological Seminary met on Tuesday evening after the address by Rev. Mr. Holman. Rev. F. W. Conrad, D. D., was elected President; Rev. Wm. M. Baum, D. D., Secretary; and Rev. C A Hay, D. D., Treasurer. Rev. Mr. Dimm was selected to deliver the next Alumni address.

The Alumni of the College met on Wednesday evening, after the address by Rev. Mr. PARSONS, and elected the following officers:

President—Hon. E. McPherson, LL. D.
Vice Presidents—Charles Horner, M. D., Rev. A. C. Wedekind, D. D., Rev. H. L. Baugher.
Secretary—Prof. M. L. Stoever, Ph. D.
Treasurer—H. J. Fahnestock.

Bishop Clarkson, of Nebraska, was elected orator for next year.

Prof. STOEVER presented the obituary record for the last year, which embraced the following:

F. R. Anspach, D. D.,	of Class of	1839.
Prof. Wm. A. Kopp,	" "	1843.
H. C. Eckert, M. D.,	" "	1846.
Rev. S. J. Berlin,	" "	1858.
J. W. Ebert,	" "	1859.

Appropriate reference was also made to the death of the Rev. Dr. BAUGHER, who had filled the office of President for nearly eighteen years, and was connected with the instruction and discipline for thirty-seven years.

On Thursday the Phrenakosmian Society had a Re-union, Hon. EDWARD McPHERSON occupying the chair. Rev. T. T. TITUS was appointed Secretary, and Rev. R. S. FINK Treasurer. On motion of Rev. Dr. VALENTINE, it was Resolved that an effort be made to raise $1000, to be invested by the Boad of Trustees, the interest to be applied for the benefit of the Library. Mr. McPHERSON started the subscription with $50, followed by others, realizing $650. A Report was submitted by one of the active members exhibiting the general operations of the Society since the last Re-union. The following statement has been handed to us for publication:

"The total number of members of the Phrena Society who received honors during the last seven years is 24—appointments 19. Total number of members of the Philo Society who received honors during the same period 7—appointments 5. More than three forths of both honors and appointments were taken by the Phrena Society; of the Freshman Prize, the awards stand—Phrena 3½, Philo 5. Of the three Hassler medals, 2 were taken by Phrenas, and 1 by Philo. Both the "Graeff Prize Essays" have been awarded to the Phrena Society."

The Philomathæan Society also had a Re-union on Thursday afternoon, Hon. JOHN E. SMITH presiding. An address of welcome was delivered by the President of the Society, and interesting letters read from former members. A sketch of the organization, progress and present condition of the Society was read by EDWARD T. HORN, one of the present members. It was organized in 1831 with 16 members, and has now on its roll over 90. The Library contains 4800 volumes which is annualy replenished by the interest of the "$1000 Library fund," besides a Reading Room for the use of the members, where the leading journals of the country may be found. The Society has also $200 invested, to be applied to the refitting of the Hall in future. Addresses were made by a number of honorary members, formerly in active connection with the Society, detailing interesting reminiscences of its past history.

The following is the action of the College Board on the subjects indicated:

RESIGNATION OF PROF. WILKEN.

Whereas the Rev. J. F. WILKEN, Prof. of German Language and Literature in this Institution, has been constrained to offer his resignation, the Board, in accepting the same, hereby expresses, its regret in thus losing the services of one whom it has uniformily esteemed as a faithful and conscientious teacher, a frank and genial companion, a devoted exemplary Christian, and an earnest and steadfast friend of our Institution. In severing his connection with us, he carries with him our best wishes for his future success in whatever field the Lord may call him to labor.

Resolved, That a copy of this action be sent to Prof. WILKEN by the Secretary.

DEATH OF MR. STEVENS.

Resolved, That the Board have heard, with sentiments of deep regret, the announcement of the death of Hon. THADDEUS STEVENS, an early patron of the Institution, and a member of the Board from the date of its organization.

Resolved, That we gratefully acknowledge the valuable services and the constant friendship of the distinguished deceased, whose earnest devotion to the great cause of Education will claim the gratitude of prosterity.

Resolved, That a Copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Secretary to the family of the deceased.

DEATH OF JANTOR HOPKINS.

Resolved, That we gratefully acknowledge the kind Providence that continued, for so long a time, to the College the valuable services of the deceased.

Resolved, That in the removal of the deceased the College has lost a most faithful and efficient officer.

Resolved, That we desire to place on record our appreciation of his long and devoted services—his strict integrity and honor—his uniform and gentlemanly deportment among the students, and the high esteem in which he was held by all connected with the College.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and also published in the papers of the town.

DEATH OF MR. STEVENS.—On Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, (the hour fixed for the funeral services of THADDEUS STEVENS,) the stores and places of business in this place were closed, the bells tolling from 2 to 3 o'clock. We are glad to say that our Democratic fellow-citizens, with two or three marked and malignant exceptions, promptly united in this tribute of respect. Court was in session, and after the current business had been disposed of, Hon. M. McCLEAN rose and, after referring to Mr. STEVENS' former connection with this Bar, his eminent legal abilities, and national reputation, moved that the Court adjourn and that an appropriate minute be entered on the Court records. Messrs. McCONAUGHY and WILLS followed in fitting tributes to the memory of the deceased; when his honor Judge FISHER ordered an adjournment of the Court and a minute of the proceedings to be entered on the records—preceding the order with a generous and eloquent tribute to Mr. STEVENS' eminent legal abilities, and the marked courtesy, frankness, and high sense of honor, which had ever characterized his professional career—always courteous to the Court, and commanding the respect and admiration of the Bar, which he honored by his matchless eloquence and gifted intellect.

NARROW ESCAPE.—One day last week, as two little sons of LEWIS A. BUSHMAN, of Cumberland township, were playing on a pile of unthreshed oats in the barn floor, one of them met with a painful accident. In sliding down from the top, he fell into an iron fork, one of the tines of which entered his right cheek and came out at the temple. Fortunately it passed along on the outside of the bone; otherwise the accident would doubtless have been fatal. His little brother with unusual presence of mind in one so young promptly pulled out the fork, and then reported to his parents. The injured one did not suffer much, and next morning was lively again. The escape was truly a narrow one.—Compiler.

"Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is a perfect and miraculous article.—Cures baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum." Softens brash, dry and wiry hair into beautiful silken tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores gray hair to its original color.—Savannah (Ga.) Republican.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE, in another part of this paper. This truly Valuable Medicine is recommended by all who use it. Read the certificates. new REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Republican Convention met in Agricultural Hall on Monday last, and was organized by appointing JOSIAH BENNER President, Capt. WM. JONES and VINCENT O'BOLD Vice Presidents, and Capt. H. N. MINNIGH and G. L. DEARDORFF Secretaries. The following Delegates appeared and took seats:

Gettysburg—Dr. Charles Horner, Wm. R. Eyster.
Cumberland—Geo. B. Stover, Wm. G. Black.
Littlestown—L. T. Mehring, Jesse Ickes.
Germany—Solomon Menges, Martin Stahle.

On motion, all the nominations were made unanimous.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Republicans of Adams County ratify the nominations of GRANT & COLFAX, and of HARTRANFT & CAMPBELL, for National and State offices, and call upon all law-abiding, honest citizens, to sustain at the polls the policy of Peace, Economy and Liberty, which they represent.

Resolved, That we are not in favor of the Democratic policy of Universal Taxation, but demand that the necessaries of life, and that land and its products, shall, as far as possible, be relieved of all taxation, and that the luxuries of life and the active business of the Country shall be made to realize the money necessary to carry on the Government economically administered.

Resolved, That the Country is now entitled to have Peace, and that GRANT'S election promises peace, early and durable; but that the policy of the New York Convention invites to War, and will necessarily lead to great agitation—to the serious injury of the Nation in all its interests.

Resolved, That we hear with alarm the threats of Southern Democratic Revolutionists; and that we call upon the people to "crush out" this incipient Treason, by placing in the Executive chair the Chief who met and overthrew the late Rebellion when flaunting defiance in the field.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to steady ceaseless work for our National State and County Tickets, till the final victory be won in November, and the Country be put beyond the dangers which now threaten it.

Resolved, That while we recognize the claim of Franklin Co., to name the nominee for State Senator, in turn, according to usage, we regret the loss to the District of our present able and faithful representation in the Senate, the Hon. D. McCONAUGHY, who, by his fidelity to his public duties, and his devotion to and vindication of the great principles of the Republican party, has justified our choice in his election, and endeared him to the friends of the Union throughout the District.

Resolved, That we tender to Hon. WILLIAM H. KOONTZ, our able and faithful Representative in Congress, the expression of our warm approval of the zeal and fidelity with which he has served the District, his steady devotion to the principles and policy of the Republican party, and his earnest support of the great measures of national policy which have so pre-eminently distinguished the 39th and 40th Congresses.

Resolved, That in the death of the Hon. THADDEUS STEVENS Adams county has lost her most generous public benefactor and illustrious citizen, advocate and Representative—Pennsylvania the most gifted intellect that has graced her Halls of legislation, and the founder of her noble system of Education, by public schools; and the Nation its leading Statesman—the "Great Commoner"—whose master mind has exerted the mos tcontrolling influence in the National councils—grasping amidst War and convulsion, the principles of right and liberty imperilled by the Rebellion, and bringing order out of anarchy by inaugurating and perfecting those wise measures of Reconstruction, which assure to our Country a future of peace, liberty and prosperity.

Col. F. B. Picking, Peter Shively, and Dr. Robert Horner were appointed Congressional Conferees, with instructions to support the nomination of Hon. John Cessna, of Bedford.

Col. E. G. Fahnestock, Gen. W. W. Stewart, and Col. C. H. Buehler were appointed Senatorial Conferees, with instructions to support the nomination of Col. Wm. D. Dixon, of Franklin.

Col. Wm. King was appointed Senatorial Delegate, and I. N. Durboraw, Esq., Representative Delegate, to the next State Convention.

On motion, the Convention adjourned sine die.

Then added, ere he closed his Book,
Too beautiful for earth.

And when the reaper, Death, passed by,
He read the words and smiled;
Then gently folded in his arms
Our lovely little child.

We wept, but angels sang;
With soft and glad accord,
They welcomed the transplanted flower
In the garden of the Lord.

We wept; we will not weep,
When all our days are run,
And at the Gates of Paradise
We meet our little son."

750 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC
RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Although this road is built with great rapidity, the work is thoroughly done, and is pronounced by the United States Commissioners to be first-class in every respect, before it is accepted, and before any bonds can be issued upon it.

Rapidity and excellence of construction have been secured by a complete division of labor, and by distributing the twenty thousand men employed along the line for long distances at once. It is now probable that the Whole Line to the PACIFIC will be Completed in 1869.

The Company have ample means of which the Government grants the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations; also 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road; also United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built, for which it takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c.

THE EARNINGS OF THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD, from its Way or Local Business only, during the year ending June 30th, 1868, amounted to over which, after paying all expenses was much more than sufficient to pay the interest upon its Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount,

ARE ENTIRELY SECURE

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July at the Company's office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

A very important consideration in determining the value of these bonds is the length of time they have to run.

It is well known that a long bond always commands a much higher price than a short one. It is safe to assume that during the next thirty years, the rate of interest in the United States will decline as it has done in Europe, and we have a right to expect that such six per cent. securities as these will be held at as high a premium as those of this Government, which, in 1867, were bought in at from 20 to 23 per cent. above par. The export demand alone may produce this result, and as the issue of a private corporation, they are beyond the reach of political action.

The Company believe that their Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest security in the market, and the right to advance the price at any time is reserved. Subscriptions will be received in

FIRST NATIONAL BANK and GETTYSBURG NATIONAL BANK,

and in New York

AT THE COMPANY'S OFFICE, NO. 20 NASSAU ST.,

AND BY

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, BANKERS, No. 59 WALL St.,

And by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices or to any of the advertised agents.

This world renowned remedy for the unfailing cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

Indigestion, Sick Headache, Sourness or Acidity of Stomach, Rising of Food, Flatulency, Lassitude, Weariness, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, finally terminating in Death.

Is urged upon the attention and trial of sufferers from this most horrible of all diseases. Dyspepsia shows its ravages in a thousand different forms, in fact, all disorders of the Stomach and Bowels, with all their complaints, such as Sick Headache, Hartburn, Depression, general sense of uneasiness and feeling that you are not well. Food distresses you, rises and sours on your stomach; breath is bad, skin at times flushed and hot; don't feel as if you could move or stir about, and worst of all, Indigestion or Constipation, are nothing more nor less than Dyspepsia.—Thousands upon thousands suffer and die this way and neither themselves or physicians know what ails them except that they are surely dying.

Reader we repeat it, this is all Dyspepsia. If you would have proof of our statement, if you would save yourselves and children from an early grave, if you would have health and energy and strength, again we beg you to try one bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure.

You will see how soon it will dispel your bad feelings and gloomy forebodings. How soon it will chase away any species of Dyspepsia. How soon it will give you new life and vigor, and how soon it will make a well man or woman of you. For your own sake, for the sake of everybody suffering, we beg, we entreat you to try it.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINT AND BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS,

It is a Sovereign Remedy, while for Fever and Ague, and all those diseases which are generated in a miasmic climate, it is a certain preventive and cure.

That its wonderful medicinal virtues may not stand alone upon our statement, we append a few unsolicited testimonials from those whose position in society and reputation as citizens will place their evidence beyond all question, and carry with them strength and conviction to the most incredulous.

MR. LESTER SEXTON, a wholesale merchant of 30 years, in Milwaukee, one of the most reliable and careful men in the State, says, under date
MILWAUKEE, WIS., Jan. 24, 1868.
MESSRS. C. G. CLARK & Co., New Haven, Conn.
Both myself and wife have used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and it has proved PERFECTLY satisfactory as a Remedy. I have no hesitation in saying that we have received GREAT BENEFIT from its use.
Very Respectfully,
(Signed) LESTER SEXTON.

[From Rev. L. F. Ward, Avon, Lorain Co., O.]
MESSRS. STRONG & ARMSTRONG,
Gentlemen,—It gives me great pleasure to state that my wife has derived great benefit from the use of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. She has been for a number of years greatly troubled with Dyspepsia, accompanied by violent paroxysms of constipation which so prostrated her that she was all the while, for months, unable to do anything. She took, at your instance, Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and has derived GREAT BENEFIT FROM IT, and is now comparatively well. She regards this medicine as a great blessing.
Truly yours,
Jan. 13, 1868. L. F. WARD.

[From Rev. ISAAC AIKEN, Allegheny, Pa.]
JOSEPH FLEMMING, Druggist.
No. 84 Market Street. Pittsburgh.
SIR:—I take great pleasure in stating that, after having suffered from dyspepsia for about fifteen years, at some periods much more than others, I have been entirely cured by the use of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure.—My friends know that of late years my case has been an extreme one. I had great suffering from eating any kind of food, and on an average would vomit about one-third of my meals, in a sour indigestible mass. When the severe attacks would come, I would lose all strength and become utterly helpless. Some of the attacks would be so severe that for days together I would not retain any thing on my stomach, save a little dry toast and tea. For years I knew not what it was to pass five consecutive hours without intense pain. From the time I took the first dose of this medicine I ceased vomiting, gradually all soreness passed away, and flesh and strength returned, and ever since I have been able to eat any kind of food set upon the table. Six months have now passed without any symptoms of the return of the disease. My case was considered by all, even physicians, so marvelous, that for a time it was feared it might be fictitious; but I am now so well convinced, that I have not been merely relieved, but permanently cured, that I can conscientiously recommend Coe's Dyspepsia Cure to all victims of the Dyspepsia.
ISAAC AIKEN,
Late Pastor of the Beaver St. M. E. Church, Allegheny.

CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE.

NEW HAVEN, Ct., June 1, 1867.
MESSRS. C. G. CLARK & Co.
GENTS:—Being anxious, from the great benefit derived, to assist in spreading the fame of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, I would state my case. Something over a year ago, I had a violent attack of Diarrhœa, which lasted eight weeks, during which time I employed three physicians, but without relief, until I tried Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. The first dose helped me; I took it three times a day for a week and was entirely cured; and I believe to-day that it saved my life. J. H. SHIREMAN'S
REAPERS & MOWERS.

HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I also offer it to the farmer this season. It is well known, having taken the premium at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others, which were considered splendid machines, and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. Having concluded not to offer any machine that will not give entire satisfaction, I have refused agencies of several other machines, and now offer this one as

THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.

Having tried one myself, I know exactly what it will do. I could refer you to scores of farmers who have purchased machines of me, who are highly pleased and say this is the only machine they would use.

Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at my place. This is a great consideration—the machine can be repaired at home immediately, and with much less cost.

Another great saving is the BINDER which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and given entire satisfaction—requiring no harvest hand except a driver. This Binder can also be attached to the Reapers which have been sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.

I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have bought and used these machines:

Michael Fiscel,	Stephen Gettier,
Moses Hartman,	Mr. Sterner,
Joseph Wierman,	Mr. Linn,
Ulrich Jacobs,	J. R. Hershey
Jacob Hartman,	B. B. Woodburn,
	Jacob Laman,

with others, too numerous to mention.

This machine has a self-rake, side delivery, and is warranted to do its work as above recommended.

Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, a first-rate article, which we will sell at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the COLUMBIA RAKE always on hand.

Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at Mr. Conrad Snyder's Battlefield Hotel.

GEISER'S PATENT SELF-REGULATING
GRAIN SEPARATOR,
CLEANER AND BAGGER,

With the latest improved Triple-geared Horse Power, either Gear or Belt.

This machine has successfully competed with all the best of the different patented Grain Separators, and now has the reputation of being the best Separator ever produced; in fact, the only Separator and Cleaner ever before the public to give general satisfaction.

The machine is conveniently arranged for hauling and threshing, being permanently fixed on two wheels. One man can easily move or shift it about, so that it is not half the trouble on a barn floor as a common thresher and shaker. It is also easily put in operation. It is simple, easily managed, reliable, durable, compact and cleanly to work by while in operation, not making near the dust as the common machine or other Separators.

Farmers can rest assured that this machine is no humbug, and judging from the high recommendation of farmers that are using them we must come to the conclusion that it is the very machine that farmers want.

The following are a few of the persons who have used this machine, well known, and to whom the public are referred for further information:

THE GREAT
Conowago Phosphate.
PREPARED BY
C. W. BENSON, M. D.,
LITTLESTOWN, PA.

THE Conowago Phosphate is destined to stand at the head of American Fertilizers. It has already proved its SUPERIOR QUALITIES, and ample certificates of its high merits will soon be furnished to the public. The proprietors will spare no means or pains to make it a reliable and uniform article. It is superior to Peruvian Guano, because it is MORE LASTING IN ITS EFFECT and EQUAL TO IT ON THE FIRST CROP. It does not over-stimulate the soil, as most of the fertilizers in the market do, and leave the land after gathering the first crop in a worse condition than before using it, but it remains an active fertilizer in the soil, and continues year after year to show itself on every crop that is put in the land.

The Conowago Phosphate contains a large percentage of Ammonia and Phosphoric acid, which are essential elements to vegetable food. They either enter directly into the plant or prepare the alkalies in the soil to do so. The base of the Conowago Phosphate a PURE RAW BONE, completely and thoroughly dissolved without the use of any volatile agent.

One of the great advantages of the Conowago Phosphate is that it will dissolve the sand in the soil and set the silica free to be absorbed by the growing plant, which is a very important ingredient in giving firmness and strength to the stalk and grain.—It will prevent the falling and lodging of crops that are forced up by a wet and warm season, and will greatly facilitate the ripening of the grain and secure it against the rust.

Agencies are being established throughout the country wherever fertilizers are sold. We are not afraid to place it beside the best in the country.

Let all the farmers and planters make up their minds that they will try the Great Conowago Phosphate this fall.

Price fifty Dollars per ton.
BENSON & MAUS, Proprietors.

The Conowago Phosphate being made very fine, and thoroughly disintegrated, makes it convenient to use in the drills, and mixes more freely with the soil. All farmers know the advantage of fine fertilizers. June 17, 1868.—tf

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

DEATHS OF DISEASED CATTLE AT EAST ALBANY—LATEST FROM ILLINOIS.

A despatch from Albany, New York, says twenty or thirty Illinois Cattle, out of three or four thousand head, have died at the East Albany yards of the Texas disease. The mortality seems to be confined thus far to Illinois stock, and droves from that State are very generally shunned.

The Troy (N. Y.) Times of Tuesday says:

"There is every reason to believe that the dreaded cattle fever or pestilence which has caused such havoc among the herds of Illinois and other Western States has made its appearance in this vicinity. Its ravages thus far seem to have been confined to Greenbush and vicinity, but it is evidently spreading, and unless great vigilance is exercised, may be fearful in its results. The first case reported occurred about a week ago, a cow belonging to Mr. Aiken being found in the pasture dead. At first it was supposed that she was struck by lightning. The next day, however, another cow suddenly died, and up to the present time Mr. Aiken has lost eight. Several other persons have lost cattle by the same disease, and during the past week probably twelve have died. The animals are sick but a few hours, and the only symptoms they exhibit is a slight bleeding at the nose. They will apparently be well at night, and in the morning be found dead. There is hardly a doubt that this is the same disease which prevails among the Western cattle, and that it has been brought here by infected droves from Illinois. It is said to have made its appearance in Buffalo about a fortnight since, also at Cincinnati and other places.

"In this locality its fatal results have not been confined to cattle alone. A young man named Abram Smith, employed by Abram G. Wands, who also lost two cows by the disease, skinned one of the cows that died on Wednesday last. His hands and arms were somewhat scratched by berry bushes, and in this manner the poisonous matter or virus was innoculated into his arm. The limb began to swell and pain him very much. He consulted a physician, but his condition rapidly grew worse, and on Saturday resulted in his death. His funeral will take place to-day. A sister of the deceased, who attended him in his last illness, kissed him after his death, and was also infected by the disease. This morning she was lying very low, and it is thought cannot recover. Another man named Ostrander was subsequently affected in the same manner, but is still alive. That the death of Smith was the result of the infection there is no doubt. These facts show that caution should be used not only in preventing the spread of the contagion, but in touching the deceased animals."

A letter to the Chicago Republican, dated at Sadonis, Illinois, August 5th, says:

"Since the first of June last from six to ten thousand Texas cattle were brought to this county and scattered all over it. The result is, all of our native cattle are diseased. Sadonis and Tolono townships have already lost over six hundred head of cattle, and it now seems we are only in the midst of it.—I see from the agricultural report that as early as 1853, Ralls county, Mo., suffered from this same cattle, disease. The trade was continued until 1858, when horses and sheep, also the Texas cattle died. A short description of this fearful disease may be of some use to your many readers.

"I have seen them from the first to the last stage, and have been a close observer of all the symptoms. They are not all taken alike. Still the general symptoms are the same. A hacking cough is one of the first in some. They droop the head and ears, and as they get worse, invariably you will see the head hanging down, a slow, dragging step, showing great weakness of the whole body. The flank draws in, so much so, that in thirty hours the beast will look as though it had been starved for weeks.—In milch cows one of the first indications is a sudden failure of the milk. I had a fine cow that was giving three gallons twice a day. She was milked at night, and gave the usual amount, seemed well, took water and feed the same; the next morning she failed one-third, at night she only gave one gallon, and by the next morning was dry. I have been particular in the above description, hoping it may be of some use to others. In most cases the bowels are constipated, but in one I saw it was the reverse, and the cow scoured badly. The water resembles bloody brine; in all the cases I have seen, it is of this character. They have a high fever from the first, and suffer loss of flesh faster than any disease I have seen. The type of the disease is alike, and the same symptoms, and the fatal result as at first, still continues. So far no cure has been found."

"There is a wildness, in some cases amounting to madness, that renders the beast dangerous. There is one thing remarkable; while they have an acute inflammatory fever, with loss of strength and flesh, the most I have seen will eat for the two first days. On the third day the appetite fails entirely, and they die the third or fourth day. Some have not lived so long."

The New York Post of Wednesday evening says:

"The Board of Health officers, with the consent of the New Jersey authorities, have selected a new quarantine ground for the sickly and infected cattle, the situation of which they declined to state for prudential reasons. The infected cattle have been removed to the new yards, where the medical officers of the Board of Health will continue their scientific examinations.

We have the authority of Dr. Harris, Registrar of Vital Statistics, for saying that persons may now have no fear of purchasing diseased beef in this market, as it is almost positively certain that none such has been on sale in this city for two or three days past, the prompt measures of the Board of Health officers having prevented the sale of any diseased cattle since Saturday.

There have been no arrivals of cattle since yesterday morning, and those arriving at that time were in sound condition. Telegrams have been forwarded to the stations along the line of the roads bringing cattle to this city, and no more droves are expected to arrive until Friday morning. All that hereafter comes to this city will probably be in a healthy condition, as the precautionary means of Governors Fenton, Geary and Ward will effectually prevent the forwarding of diseased cattle.

THE CATTLE DISEASE.—A statement of facts concerning the Texas cattle disease, made by J. E. Dodge, Statistician of the Department of Agriculture, as the result of extended investigation, makes the following points:

First—That the disease is communicated by cattle from Texas, Florida and other portions of the Gulf coast.

Second—That such disease is itself unknown in Texas or the Gulf coast.

Third—That the cattle communicating it are not only apparently healthy, but are generally improving in condition.

Fourth—That while local herds receiving the infection nearly all die, they never communicate the disease to others.

Fifth.—That either a consid[illegible] crease in elevation, or a di[illegible]erable increase of three degrees of lati[illegible]ance of two or [illegible] is neces[illegible]ue from the starting [illegible]ary to develop the virus into [illegible] and virulency, and a farther progress of two degrees of latitude, and a few weeks in time is sufficient to eliminate the poison from the system.

Sixth—That Texas cattle removed to other miasmatic sections, as the Mississippi bottoms, up to the thirty-sixth parallel, communicates no infection to local herds.

Seventh—Medication has thus far been of no avail.

It concludes that the disease cannot become general, and that it cannot exist only within the movements of Texas cattle, which could be regulated or suppressed, and it does not result from travel, but from climate causes.

Star Agricultural Works.

THE ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING CO., Albany, New York, Manufacturers of General Agricultural Machinery, comprising the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines; "Star" Railway (or Endless Chain) and Lever Horse Powers; "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers; Circular Cross-cut Saw-mills; Vegetable Cutters; Horse Hay Forks; Corn and Feed Mills; Power Corn Shellers; Dog Powers, &c., &c.

We wish to call the particular attention of Farmers to our celebrated "STAR" THRESHER AND CLEANER, which, as lately improved, we claim is far superior to any other machine now in market. It is compact and easily portable, simple in its construction, and therefore easy to operate by the most inexperienced, and will do its work with marvellous rapidity and perfection, and with comparatively the least demand upon the strength of the animals driving it.

We have made recent improvements in this machine by which we are enabled to thoroughly clean the grain under almost any combination of difficulties, and we are now using an entirely new and effective device for relieving the feeder of dust, thus making the operation of threshing as comfortable and safe as with the ordinary machines it is annoying and frequently destructive of health.

These Machines are made of suitable sizes for our "Star" Railway 2 Horse Power and for our "Star" Lever Powers for 4 and 6 horses.

For sale by our agents and dealers generally. For full particulars, send for our Illustrated Descriptive Circular and Price List. Correspondents will please address THE ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING CO., P. O. Drawer 162, Albany, N. Y.

Hoop Skirts.

628 HOOP SKIRTS. 628

WM. T. HOPKIN'S "OWN MAKE"

are the best and CHEAPEST Low Priced Hoop Skirts in the market. Trail Skirts, 25 springs, $1.00; 30 springs, $1.20; and 40 springs, $1.45. Plain Skirts, 6 tapes, 20 springs, 80 Cents; 25 springs, 95 Cents; 30 springs, $1.15; and 35 springs, $1.25. Warranted in every respect.

"Our OWN Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," Eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 50 springs, $1.20 to $2.50.—Plain, Six Tapes, 20 to 50 springs, from 95 Cents to $2.00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods, and at much lower prices.

"Our OWN Make" of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metallic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other Skirt in this country, and are lighter, more elastic, will wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them. They are being sold extensively by Merchants throughout this and the adjoining states at very moderate prices. If you want the best, ask for "Hopkin's Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. Merchants will find our different grades of Skirts exactly what they need, and we especially invite them to call and examine our extensive assortment, or send for Wholesale Price List.

To be had at Retail at Manufactory, and of the Retail Trade generally, and at Wholesale of the Manufacturer only, to whom all orders should be addressed. MANUFACTORY AND SALESROOM, 628 ARCH ST., Between 6th and 7th sts., Philadelphia.

THE GREAT CHOLERA PREVENTATIVE.

I.
I. 1866. L.

THE GREAT

Zingari Bitters.

THIS WONDERFUL REMEDY was discovered and introduced about twenty years ago by Dr. S. Cheopsus, an eminent Egyptian physician.

He had long seen and felt the want of some remedy which would strike at the root of disease, and so prevent much of the suffering which the human family was then compelled to endure.

This great question was presented to his mind every day in vivid colors as he moved among the sick and dying, and observed the inefficiency of nearly all the remedies then in use. Thus he was led to think and experiment; and after ten years' study and labor, he presented to his fellow-man the wonderful Zingari Bitters. The effect of this preparation in the prevention and cure of disease, was so marvellous and astonishing, that the most flattering marks of royal favor were bestowed upon him who discovered it.—His name was placed upon the Roll of Nobles, and a gold medal with the following inscription—Dr. S. Cheopsus, the Public Benefactor—was presented to him by the Viceroy.

The preparation has been used in several epidemics of cholera, both as a preventive and curative measure, and with such great success, that it has been introduced into nearly all the general hospitals of the old world.

The old saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, applies with marvellous force to cholera, and therefore any remedy that will protect us against this terrible disease should be freely and persistently used.

All pathologists now agree that the cholera poison acts on the system through the blood, and that any combination which acts on the excretory organs, and keeps them in working order, must prevent a sufficient accumulation of the poison to exert its terrible effects on the organism. This is true not only of cholera, but of nearly all other maladies, especially the different forms of fever.

The Zingari Bitters is just such a remedy as the above conditions require. It acts on the organs of excretion and secretion, keeping up a perfect balance between them. This Bitters is composed entirely of roots and herbs, so nicely concocted that every organ is acted upon and put in tone. Its taste is pleasant and its effects prompt and lasting.

Numerous cases of the following diseases have been cured by it: Cholera, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Scrofula, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Fever, Ague, Nervous Debility, Anæmia, Female Irregularities, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Colic, &c.

Price One Dollar per quart Bottle.
